Stage 6 and 7. The Lost Key - Stories

Name _____ Date _____ W Y2 T2

You can put un or dis in front of some words to make them say the opposite.

A key can lock a door.

A key can unlock a door.

Biff can agree with Chip.

Biff can disagree with Chip.

Put un or dis in front of the words which are underlined and write sentences which say the opposite.

Kipper was lucky to have lost the key.

Kipper was unlucky to have lost the key.

The key appeared in the grass.

Kipper was able to find the key.

The boys obeyed the man.

Kipper was happy to lose the key.

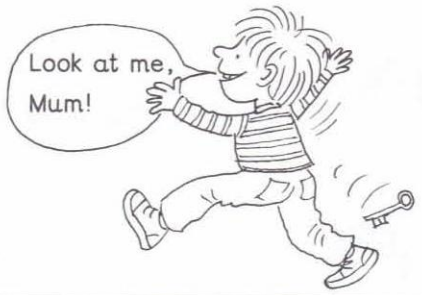

Mum liked paying for the key.

Work check

Name _____ Date _____ Y2/T2

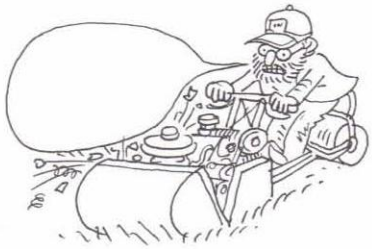

Tell the story in this comic strip. Fill in the speech bubbles.

1

Kipper has lost the key.

2

3

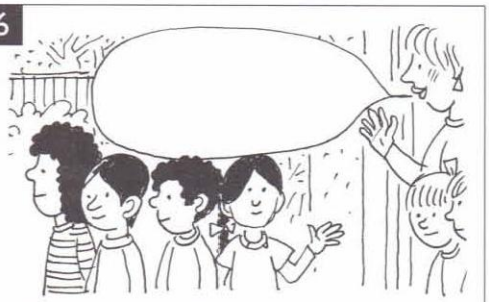

4

5

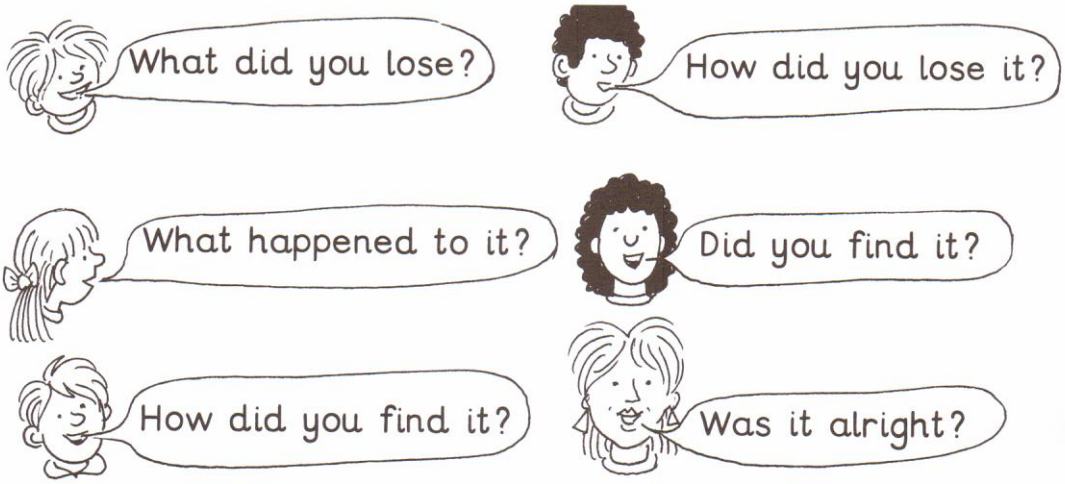

6

Work check

Name _____ Date _____ Y2/T2

Write a short story about losing something in the park.
Here are some questions to help you.

Work check