Chapter 3	This makes me think that ...
In a secret underground hideout, a man in a purple suit was watching a screen.	The man is spying on someone.
Behind him were two other men, one short, one tall. They were wearing dark grey suits. They were called Plug and Socket.
"Aha!" exclaimed Dr X. "This could be the chance we've been waiting for to get the watches back."
"Continue monitoring the situation. I have to go out."
(Plug says:) "What does monitoring the situation mean?" "Just watch the screen, nitwit," Dr X replied. "Oh is something good on?"
